MEMORANDUM FOR: ALL LINE AND OPC STAFF DIVISIONS

SUBJECT: Allowances and Differentials

REFERENCE: (a) Memorandum dtd 5 Dec 51, same subject

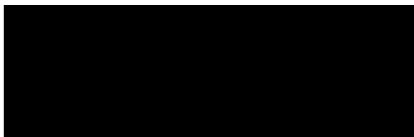

1. This memorandum supersedes reference (a) and reflects current information and practices pertaining to various allowances and differentials paid to employees and personnel performing services under contract.

2. The Division or Staff concerned is responsible for the briefing of personnel entitled to allowances and differentials. Officers of the Finance Division will be glad to provide technical advice and assistance.

3. Staff employees and staff agents performing services overseas are entitled to the standard government allowances and differentials that are established in the area of their assignment. Personnel performing services under contract are entitled only to those allowances and differentials that are granted in their contract.

4. The attached material defines the types of allowances and differentials and outlines procedures which must be followed before payments can be made.
